

Job Title: Information Security Architect

Location: Offshore/Onsite

Job Description:

Extensive experience in information security with a focus on data access security, performance and reliability. Solid understanding and hands on experience of security protocols, authentication, authorization, data masking and data platform security. Strong skill sets to define the methodology for an enterprise data platform security and at least have one end to end implementation in last one year.

Good working knowledge of current IT risks and experience implementing security solutions
Experience implementing multi-factor authentication, single sign-on, identity management or related technologies.

Ability to interact with a broad cross-section of personnel to explain and enforce security measures.

Excellent written and verbal communication skills as well as business acumen.